

Case Study 1 — Campus Café Checkout

Step 1: Understand the Problem

The program is designed for a campus café user to select items from a menu, view a customer item cart, and complete a purchase. It calculates subtotal, applies tax, and asks if a student discount applies. The program user is café staff on POS and customers at kiosk as expected. “Done” means the receipt is printed and the order is completed.